

Listen to Dandy here

BIO

Beau Nectar is a bilingual collaboration between two singer-songwriters, Marie-Clo and éémi. The duo offers intimate and vibrant synth-pop/folk, inspired by fauna and flora, that awaken their audience's empathy toward nature.

The duo signed with Indica Records and released their debut French album "Two Lips" in 2023. Their first English album, "Dandy", came out on May 8, 2026.

Highlights

- Top 5 artists to look out for in Exclaim! - 2026
- Top 12 artists to look out for in Mitsou Magazine - 2025
- Francofaune (Brussels, Belgium) - 2025
- Pop Artist of the Year at Sask Music Awards - 2025
- 2 Trille Or awards (Group, Pop Album) - 2025
- Nominated for 1 GAMIQ - 2024
- Nominated for 2 Western Canadian Music Awards - 2024
- Nominated for 4 Capital Music Awards - 2024
- Artist residency at Centre national des Arts - 2024
- 4 Trille Or awards - 2023
- Top 100 Searchlight 2023 CBC Music - 2023
- Artists in residence at the Banff Centre for the Arts - 2023
- 'Sous l'eau' #4 on Sirius XM Influence Franco - 2023
- Opener for Daniel Bélanger (Toronto, 2023)
- Opener for Fanny Bloom (Montréal, 2023)
- Opener for Polaris Prize Winner Pierre Kwenders (Saskatoon, 2023)
- FME (Rouyn-Noranda, QC, 2022)

"Their first English-language release, last month's Dandy, sees them embody various flora, acting as a conduit for Mother Nature to speak to us through amid climate disaster. The pair complement the outrage they voice with groovy rhythms, whimsical synth textures and foliage-related puns — a spoonful of sugar to help the medicine go down."
- Exclaim!

Music Videos

Beau Nectar:
ADDITIONNER LES FORCES
« Beau Nectar, c'est bilingue sans être québécois donc c'est différent »

SOCAN

LISEZ L'ARTICLE

MAGAZINESOCAN.CA

MITSOU MAGAZINE

billboard CANADA

INDIEMUSIC
leDroit

CBC MUSIC
SEARCH LIGHT

contest

